An Epic Expedition Through Proverbs™

Jambo! I'm Tumbili, and of all the animals God made, my hands are the most like human hands. Show me your hands.

Put your hands in the air.
Now clap your hands.
Give your neighbor a high five.
Shake hands with another neighbor.

Aren't hands great!

Let's play rock, paper, scissors...

PROVERBS 16:3

WORKS to the Lord.

Let's take a look at how hands and work go together.

First, who made work?
Is work good or bad?

Genesis 2:15 says, “God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it.”

God created work, and He did it before sin entered the world. In fact, in verses 19 & 20, God and Adam worked together as partners. God brought the animals, and Adam gave them names. So cool, right?

When sin entered the world, the partnership between God and people was broken. Instead of working with God, we worked against Him, and work became hard.

When Jesus came, He had a perfect relationship with God the Father. Because Jesus worked with God instead of against God, His work was good and perfect.

An Epic Expedition Through Proverbs

Solomon spent a lot of time looking at everything God made, even the bugs.

In Proverbs 6:6-11, Solomon describes how ants work, and tells us to look at them as examples for how we should work.

HARD-WORKING

RESPONSIBLE

DISCIPLINED

Remember yesterday how we learned that what comes out of our mouths shows what's in our hearts? When we're working with our hands, sometimes we forget to be careful of our mouths.

Wise work:

- Honest
- Fix your own mistakes
- Be helpful
- Work with Jesus

Unwise work:

- Complaining
- Disobedient
- Don't finish

PROVERBS 16:3

Commit your WORKS to the Lord.

In groups, talk about ways you can work wisely. How can you do your work with Jesus?
