- Sep 28, Tue Pray for Andy, Natalie and Grace Yotko and their ministries.
Deut 18:1-8 The Levites didn't get any land allotments (cf. 10:9, Josh. 13:33). Instead of land what was their inheritance and how were they provided for? If you were a Levite, and you saw wealthy brothers and sisters in the other tribes, how would you feel?
- Sep 29, Wed Seek God to see how you can best serve Him in your community. B'day: Jim Barber Anniv: Bruce and Sharon Edwards
Deut 18:9-13 Not only does God tell them what not to do, but tells them to be "blameless before the LORD" (vs 13). Is that a NT challenge too? See Phil. 2:15. In today's society, how does one live like this?
- Sep 30, Thu Pray for the wisdom to lead a God centered life, especially during this pandemic. Birthday: Mary Jane Resh
Deut 18:14-22 vs 22 is a great reminder for us of contemporary Christian 'prophets' who speak in God's name and on His behalf
- Oct 1, Fri Pray for our elderly that they may know it is not too late to be forgiven and accept Christ as their personal Savior.
Deut 19:1-13 How interesting! Consider the current political debate about 'Sanctuary Cities' in America – another divisive topic between "Liberals" and "Conservatives"! Read this passage and form an opinion of its value, relevancy, etc.
- Oct 2, Sat Pray for our shut-ins (listed) that they continue to know they are not forgotten. Birthdays: Jim Mulvaney and Ruth Kerns Deut 19:14-21 What is the purpose of multiple witnesses? Notice the burden of being a false witness!
- Oct 3, Sun Praise God for who He is; ask Him to forgive you of your sins; trust that He will hear and answer your requests; just praise.
Prov 20:11-19
